Vol 2 Issue 20

A moment to focus on the good our team is doing every day

TAKE WHAT YOU NEED, LEAVE WHAT YOU CAN

We are so thankful for the awesome new partnerships we forge with organizations throughout the UC. Our friends at Butterfly Blessing Effect recently installed this wonderful blessing box at our Cookeville UCHRA office. Join us June 19 as we hold a food drive to collect additional non-perishable items to be stored in the blessing box to help those in need in our community. This food drive will be held at 580 S. Jefferson Avenue from 9-11 a.m. on Saturday, June 19.

Out in the Field

UCDD was well-represented at the Cookeville-Putnam County Chamber of Commerce golf tournament held May 28. Powering through less-than-ideal playing conditions and dodging torrential downpours that day, the UCDD team managed to secure second place on the third flight. Great job, gentlemen!

UCDD/AAAD ANNOUNCE 2021 SENIOR, CAREGIVER EXPO EVENT

Unable to meet in-person in 2020, the UCAAAD is excited to announce this year's theme, Stronger Together; recognizing the important role older adults play in fostering the connection and engagement that build strong and resilient communities.

At this time, plans are being made to hold an in-person event at Life Church of Cookeville in a safe manner this Fall. The 2021 Senior and Caregiver Expo is scheduled to take place Tuesday, October 26, 2021, from 9 a.m. until 1 p.m. at Life Church in Cookeville.

Opportunities are available for sponsorships for this year's Expo event. UCAAAD is currently businesses seeking and organizations to partner together make help for another to successful Senior and Caregiver Expo here in the Upper Cumberland. For more details about sponsorships or general information, please contact Sara Martin (smartin@ucdd.org), or Clare Farless (cfarless@ucdd.org), at 931-432-4111.
