

A moment to focus on the good our team is doing every day

PICK UP COOKEVILLE

PICK UP COOKEVILLE NOW RECRUITING

UCHRA's Public Transportation department has begun recruiting efforts to hire drivers for the new on-call transportation service powered by Uber. For more information, visit ucpublictransit.com

Guaranteed minimum wage, business flexible hours (including weekends), vehicle, gas, insurance, and tablet provided - We need you to bring a fun and friendly attitude (and a history of safe driving)!

Out in the Field

HOUSING TEAM BRAVES HEAT, HUMIDITY TO SERVE CLIENTS

Our Housing team braved the heat and humidity yesterday to work at one of our complexes. These men and women go above and beyond to take care of our Housing clients and we appreciate all that they do! To learn more about our Housing program and related services, visit <https://ucdd.org/housingandfamilyservices>.

UCHRA recently hosted the quarterly meeting of Tennessee Association of Homemaker Service Providers (TAHSP). Jennifer Knepp, UCHRA In-Home Services Manager was elected as the secretary/treasurer for the next two years. Congratulations, Jen! Special thanks to TAHSP for allowing UCHRA to host the quarterly meeting.

UCDD HOSTS AMERICAN RESCUE PLAN WORKSHOP

Thank you to all of the UC city and county mayors that joined us for our American Rescue Plan Workshop today. We always appreciate the opportunity to work alongside you as you develop plans to advance your respective communities!