UCHRA'S CHANCE GIRLS' HOME RECEIVES NATIONAL ACCREDITATION

Congratulations to our Chance Residential Center on achieving accreditation; having met the highest national standards in practice excellence! According to center manager, Brenda Miller, the rigorous process to gather and submit all of the necessary information took more than nine months and relied heavily on the center's dedicated staff. Great work, team! Visit uchra.org to learn more about Chance.

TRAINING FOR UCDD AGING TEAM

UCAAAD SHIP and SMP Staff and volunteers recently attended statewide training at the Fall Creek Falls Lodge in Spencer.

This training, led by TCAD, provided important updates regarding statewide issues that seniors face and updates on the upcoming Annual Enrollment for Medicare Part D.

In total, 12 staff, in-kind volunteers and volunteers were able to attend this conference.

JEN KNEPP: WHY I AM AN EMPOWER UC ALLY

UCHRA'S IN-HOME SERVICES MANAGER SHARES HER MOTIVATION BEHIND BECOMING AN EMPOWER UC/CIRCLES' ALLY

Being an ally for Empower is important to me because I want to make a positive impact in my community. We do this by helping and giving to others.

I want to be a positive influence on the entire project and each participant.

That may mean a phone call or text message to send them some positive vibes or help guide them through a hard decision they may be faced with. I want to be their stable place to come to and will be their biggest cheerleader on their road to prosperity. Together we can do anything, even the hard things.
