UCDD WELL REPRESENTED AT DENVER CONFERENCE

Economic Development team members Aaron Lay, Jesse Villard, and Tyler Asher represented the agency recently at CDFA's National Development Finance Summit in Denver. This summit is designed for both public and private sector participants from across the country, and brings together leaders and experts from the development finance industry to discuss best practices, trends, and financing solutions. There, attendees meet industry experts, connect with financing, learn about the latest approaches, and discover development finance solutions to bring back home.

UCDD staff reminder: the annual Thanksgiving dinner will be held Tuesday, Nov. 22 from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. in the large conference room. You must have paid Susie Allen in order to attend the dinner. Happy Thanksgiving!
