JACKSON CO. DISTRIBUTES DONATIONS DURING PIT COUNT

This week, LeaAnn Payne and Brandi Adcock of the UCHRA Jackson County office assisted with the 2023 PIT (population in time) count; approaching citizens and assisting with surveys for the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.

LeaAnn and Brandi were also able to collect items and distribute them to individuals they made contact with.

Thank you to those who donated items which included scarves, backpacks, and toiletries.

Thank you, LeaAnn and Brandi, for your involvement and assistance!

IMPACT LEADERSHIP COHORT LEARNS ABOUT UCDD'S RELATIVE CAREGIVER PROGRAM, AREA NONPROFITS

UCDD's Relative Caregiver Program was represented by Marcia Riddle, Case Manager at the recent IMPACT Leadership Nonprofit day, held on Jan. 24 in the family life center at the First United Methodist Church.

Information about the program and what it offers was shared with the members of the Impact Leadership class, during a one-on-one "speed dating" style event, in which each member of the cohort spent 10 minutes at each table learning about what the non-profits offer the community an

Thank you to Cindy Schueman, IMPACT Leadership Executive Director, for the invitation to participate!
