COOKEVILLE TEAM VISITS WITH HIGHLANDS RESIDENTIAL

UCHRA Putnam County Coordinator, Heather Thomas and Tanayha Meeks recently visited with residents of Highlands Residential Services in Algood and Monterey to hand out Community Services Information.

During the door-to-door outreach event, residents were able to learn more about various programs and services available Highlands Residential office information, USDA loan information, commodity volunteer support, LIHEAP requirement specifics, UCHRA Public Transportation access, and general information about other available UCHRA programs and services.

Special thanks to Melinda Ayers, Occupancy Coordinator, who invited UCHRA to participate in this event and to Heather and Tanayha for their assistance!

PUTNAM COUNTY FOOD DRIVE PROJECT CONTINUES

Heather Thomas is still collecting canned/shelf-stable food items for distribution to those in need. Staff wishing to participate are asked to bring a pop-top canned soup, fruit, pasta, easy access meal to either of the upcoming UCDD and UCHRA trainings next month. For more information, please contact Heather.

SUMMER STRATEGY SESSIONS CONTINUE

Summer strategy sessions continue today as UCDD representatives are meeting with representatives in and around Pickett and DeKalb counties.

VAN BUREN COUNTY HEAD START HOLDS IN-SERVICE

Representatives from UCDD and UCHRA met at the Van Buren County Head Start office on Monday for in-service training.

There, Head Start staff participated in training related to Finance, Communications, Agency 101, and IT-related topics.

Thank you, Elsie and team, for welcoming the team to your office!
