UCHRA PHOTO RECEIVES HONORABLE MENTION

UCHRA Rural Transit Driver, Jonny Maynard, submitted a nature photo in the National RTAP 2023 Photo Contest. There were more than 35 entries in this contest and Jonny's entry, featured above, received an honorable mention.

Jonny will receive a plaque and a $25 check, but his photo will be featured and used on the RTAP and UCHRA Public Transportation websites, Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter. Great work, Jonny!

RECOVERY TEAM ATTENDS CONFERENCES, TRAINING EVENTS

Agency recovery teams recently attended the Cross Community Collaborative Symposium on Prevention & Recovery held at Tennessee Tech; learning about local resources, best practices in prevention and recovery, and the efforts being made in the Upper Cumberland region.

Agency recovery representatives also attended the 2023 Statewide Peer Support Conference where they were able to connect with certified peer recovery specialists from across the state and learn more about CPRS as a profession.

'NEXT LEVEL' TRAINING STATIONS UNVEILED

UCHRA's Public Transportation team recently acquired several laptops to create training workstations for new and current drivers. For every new driver, Mike Brown, Transportation Training Coordinator, was printing 80 pages of material with a total being 700 pages printed at once. The new workstations will eliminate waste and allow drivers to catch up on training, check emails, fill out incident reports, etc. This addition will take transportation training to a new level, says Brown.

DRC: GREENE MOVES UP

Zachary Greene recently phased up in the DRC program recently. He is moving out of the Cookeville Rescue Mission, and into a place of his own and is employed.

EMPLOYEE SHOUT-OUT: KENNY ROBERTS

Keep up the great work on building and maintaining relationships with passengers!
