TRADITIONAL COMMODITIES EVENTS RETURN IN NEW YEAR

Jackson County's UCHRA team kicked off the new year by serving more than 130 households with commodities during the event on Jan. 9, 2024.

The new year marks a return to traditional commodities distributions, as opposed to mega distributions that took place during the months of November and December. In November alone, the commodities team and county offices served more than 2,227 households.
